John 3:16

COOPER'S CORNER

How many times have you been tempted to do something that you should not do? That is an impossible question to answer because Satan tempts us everyday.

A little boy eyed the cookie jar just before lunch. His mother told him not to get into the cookies. As soon as she left the room, he pulled up a chair and climbed up on it to reach the cookie jar. When he was about to take the first bite his mother came in and shouted, “What are you doing?” He looked at her with big, innocent eyes and said, “I just climbed up here to smell the cookies, and my tooth got caught on one of them.”

There’s an old hymn that says, “yield not to temptation, for yielding is sin.” When the temptation comes, be strong and trust Christ to help you and He will.

You are loved,

Bro. Hugh

PENINSULA FAMILY NEWS

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS:

- Dale, Tracie, Colton, & Caylie Brown

THANK YOU:

Thanks to all of our brothers and sisters in Christ for their prayers and thoughtfulness during our time of loss. It has been a difficult time, but because of your kindness and compassion, our grief was greatly comforted. I can't imagine going through this ordeal without the outpouring of Christian love that we felt from Peninsula Baptist and it's members. May God pour out His greatest blessings on you. Thanks again and may God bless you,

Don and Alicia Corns
